

HOUSE of the MONTH

LONDON

Home profile

THE OWNER Tara Bernerd, an interior designer and founder of Tara Bernerd & Partners.
THE PROPERTY A riverside apartment in south London. It has a large open-plan living/kitchen/dining space, a hallway with concealed storage, a master bedroom, bathroom and dressing room, a guest bedroom with en suite, a guest cloakroom and a terrace.

LIVING AREA

'Everywhere you look, is a homage to the view,' says Tara. 'Give me grey felt, petrol-blue velvet, baby-soft leather and smoked dark glass, mixed with concrete and wood and I'm in heaven.'

Hummingbird by Alexander McQueen for The Rug Company. The ikat rug was custom-made by Luke Irwin. The Merrow Associates coffee table is from retrospectiveinteriors.com. For similar, try Chaplins. The Kilin armchairs are by Sergio Rodrigues for Espasso. The Fifties floor lamp is from Philip Thomas. For similar, try EDC London.

CALLING

Interior designer Tara wanted an elegant yet edgy apartment for relaxing with friends and then chilling alone. She found it by the Thames and now has the best view in town
